Strawberry Day at the Greensboro Farmers' Curb Market

Greensboro – The Greensboro Farmers' Curb Market will be having Strawberry Day on Saturday, May 13, from 6 am to 12 noon to celebrate fresh, locally grown strawberries. There will be a pancakes and strawberries breakfast prepared by Alex Amoroso of Cheesecakes by Alex. This is a fundraiser for the Market. The historic Greensboro Farmers' Curb Market was established in 1874. The Market, a indoor facility of the Greensboro Parks and Recreation Department, is located near downtown at the corner of Lindsay and Yanceyville Streets, across from War Memorial Baseball Stadium. Among the items available for purchase are fresh produce, cut flowers, bedding plants, potted flowers, baked goods, and a variety of arts and crafts.

Local produce available includes greens, asparagus, mushrooms, green onions, greenhouse tomatoes, eggs and goats' milk cheese. Homeland dairy products, including milk, butter, and ice cream, are now available at the Market. Crafts include handcrafted jewelry, candles, hand-made soaps, potpourri, and woodcrafts.

The Greensboro Farmers' Curb Market is open year round each Saturday morning from 6 am until 12 noon. The weekday market has reopened on Wednesdays, 7 am to 1 pm. Admission and parking are free and open to the public. For more information, please call 373-2402 or 574-3547.
